PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court on 11/17/2023.

On October 10, 2023, Mr. Jennings supervised release was revoked. Your Honor ordered Mr. Jennings' release directly to inpatient treatment on October 24, 2023. Since his release, Mr. Jennings has not reviewed his current judgment and sentence with the undersigned officer.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance

Mandatory Condition # 1: You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Jennings allegedly violated the above-stated condition on September 6, 2024. On that date, Mr. Jennings was arrested by officers with the Pasco Police Department (PPD) for the crime of third degree assault, pursuant to PPD report 2024-00046165.

According to PPD report 2024-00046165, local officers were assigned to a call for assistance on August 16, 2024. Officers arrived on the scene and the victim reported he had been beaten by Mr. Jennings with a metal chair. The victim suffered lacerations to the face coupled with a broken eye socket, which required medical intervention. The victim identified Mr. Jennings as the assailant of this encounter. However, Mr. Jennings had fled the scene prior to the arrival of PPD. Following PPD's investigation, probable cause existed for the arrest of Mr. Jennings.

On September 6, 2024, Mr. Jennings was apprehended and charged with third degree assault, pursuant to PPD report 2024-00046165. The offender remains in Franklin County Jail while this case pending.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
